NEW LEADERSHIP NAMED AT COMMISSION

TALLAHASSEE, FL- The Florida Commission on Offender Review announced recently the appointment and promotion of three leadership positions including the appointment of Rana Wallace as the agency's General Counsel, the promotion of Laura Tully to Director of Regional Operations, and the promotion of Kim Dickey to Director of Central Office Operations.

"These three professionals have significant experience in the criminal justice field which will undoubtedly support the Commission's mission of ensuring the public safety of Florida's citizens and visitors," commented Commission Chair Melinda Coonrod.

Most recently serving as the Florida Department of Corrections Assistant General Counsel, Rana Wallace also served as an attorney in the Fifth Judicial Circuit, Office of the Public Defender. Wallace received her Juris Doctor from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, a Master of Arts degree in Southern Studies from the University of Mississippi and a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Florida State University.

Laura Tully has served the Commission since 2000 in various roles including Human Resources Personnel Services Specialist and Administrative Assistant in the Office of the General Counsel. Most recently she served as a Commission Analyst for recently appointed Commission Chair Melinda Coonrod. Tully earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business from Belhaven College in Jackson, MS.

Kim Dickey joined the Commission in 1992 and has served in several roles including Revocations Unit Supervisor and Probation and Parole Specialist. Dickey holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Florida A&M University.

The Florida Commission on Offender Review (FCOR) is a constitutionally authorized, quasi-judicial, decision-making body which has been serving the citizens of this state since 1941. The Commission holds offenders accountable for their behaviors and ensures public safety through its careful selection of offenders for re-entry into society by administering parole, conditional medical release, control release, conditional release, and addiction recovery release supervision. The Commission also acts as the investigative arm of the Governor and Cabinet, sitting as the Board of Executive Clemency in clemency matters. The Commission's mission is to ensure public safety and provide victim assistance through the post prison release process.
