The Florida Commission on Offender Review Names New General Counsel

TALLAHASSEE, FLA- The Florida Commission on Offender Review has re-hired previous general counsel, Rana Wallace. Wallace served as general counsel to the Commission from 2016 through 2019, when she accepted a position as chief counsel for the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (FLHSMV).

In addition to her prior experience with the Commission and FLHSMV, Wallace served as assistant general counsel with the Florida Department of Corrections. She holds a juris doctorate from University of Florida Levin College of Law, a Master of Arts from University of Mississippi, and a Bachelor of Arts from Florida State University.

“Having previously worked with Rana, and knowing her extensive experience with the state of Florida, I’m excited to welcome her back to the Commission where her professionalism and expertise will once again be an asset,” said Chairman Coonrod. Wallace assumes her post on August 24, 2021.

The Florida Commission on Offender Review (FCOR), is a constitutionally authorized, quasi-judicial, decision-making body which has been serving the citizens of this state since 1941. The Commission holds offenders accountable for their behaviors and ensures public safety through its careful selection of offenders for re-entry into society by administering parole, conditional medical release, control release, conditional release, and addiction recovery release supervision. The Commission also acts as the investigative arm of the Governor and Cabinet, sitting as the Board of Executive Clemency in clemency matters. The Commission’s mission is to ensure public safety and provide victim assistance through the post prison release process.
