FLORIDA PAROLE COMMISSION Monthly Accomplishments' Report May 2010

• Featured Monthly Parole Case:

On May 12, 2010, the Commission conducted an initial interview hearing for parole eligible inmate Edward Shook. While Shook was originally charged with a total of 6 counts of Sexual Battery and one count of Lewd and Lascivious Assault (and while on probation for Grand Theft), he was only convicted of two counts of Sexual Battery on the nine-year old female victim. From February 1, 1984 through July 28, 1984, Shook lived with the victim's mother in Marion County, Florida, thus placing him in a position of custodial authority. During this time, he repeatedly engaged in sexual activity with the 3 victims (siblings) while in the presence of each other as well as observing the children performing sex acts on each other

The Parole Commission voted to set inmate Edward Shook's Presumptive Parole Release Date (PPRD) at July 29, 2065, with a five-year subsequent interview set for January 2015.

- Legislative Affairs: In response to the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Graham v. Florida, began conducting research and assessing an implementation process in the event the Legislature were to enact a juvenile parole statute.

the Commission, like the courts, should be construing the inmate's requests for review liberally.

- Legal: Three general court orders involved: (1) Grace v. FPC, wherein the Court denied Mr. Grace's petition challenging his revocation hearing. Mr. Grace argued that his final hearing was his preliminary hearing. The Court held that the hearing was the final one, regardless of Mr. Grace's contentions otherwise and that a preliminary hearing is not required in conditional release cases. (2) In Creamer v. FPC, the Court denied the inmate's petition seeking a declaratory judgment from the Court that Rule 23-21.0155 (Extraordinary Review Procedures) is invalid. (3) In the last case, Hampton v. FPC, the Court denied the inmate's challenge to conditions of his conditional release supervision.
- Legal: In May, the Commission heard inmate Jeffrey Walker's petitions to initiate rulemaking which were denied and notice of such printed in the Florida Administrative Weekly.
